

Punj Lloyd secures Rs. 115 crore order from Ministry of Health and Family Welfare

- Order for construction of Medical College and Hostel Complex at AIIMS, Raipur

New Delhi, April 30, 2010: Punj Lloyd Group, the diversified global engineering, procurement and construction (EPC) conglomerate, today announced a prestigious contract win worth Rs. 115 crores from Ministry of Health and Family Welfare.

The scope of work includes the construction of Medical College and Hostel Complex at AIIMS, Raipur. The order will be executed over a period of 15 months.

AIIMS, Raipur will be one of the six referral hospitals on the lines of AIIMS, New Delhi that the Ministry of Health would be setting up across the country. The 960-bed hospital will provide healthcare facilities in 39 specialty or super-specialty disciplines.

This is the Group's second project in the medical space after the successful completion of Medanta, the Medicity in Gurgaon. Spread over 45 acres, Medicity has the latest medical facilities, including R & D centre, educational, residential and attendants' accommodation. The multi specialty medical institute was built adhering to international standards by deploying modern mechanized systems.

The Group's expertise in infrastructure will help in the successful completion of the project.
