

Punj Lloyd jumps on Singapore order

Share price on BSE in Rs

The share price of Punj Lloyd rose 1.79 per cent to Rs 269.80 after its subsidiary bagged a Rs 666 crore contract in Singapore. The scope of the work includes the construction and completion of raft foundation, three levels of the basement and all associated mechanical and engineering work. The schedule time for completion of the project is August 2008. On BSE, 7.21 lakh shares were traded on the counter today.